

Prepositions

When using LAST, NEXT or EVERY, do not use AT, IN or ON. (Example: The conference was last week. NOT The conference was at last week.)

On: Use “on” when talking about days or dates. (Example: He jogs on Tuesdays to train for the race on January 12.)

In: Use “in” when talking about months, years, centuries or other long periods of time. (Example: They will visit Egypt in July.)

At: Use “at” when referring to a specific time or place. (Example: We’ll meet at the front entrance at 3 PM.)